PREFACE

This book is the culmination of twenty years of research of the Oliver and Griffin Families. Due to the fact that our family resided in Boston, especially during the American Revolutionary War and the War of 1812, I feel that if there were any Vital Records, or Land Records existent, they have since been lost. I have encountered "Missing" notations among the Suffolk County Probate Records, as well.

It was quite difficult to determine the correct Oliver lineage, due to the fact that there were other Thomas and David Olivers in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, as well as the jurisdiction of Maine. If the New South Church Records had not been filmed by LDS, this book would not have been possible, even though I had obtained positive proof that Priscilla Gray Oliver was the daughter of Stephen and Mercy (Griffin) OLIVER, through the Administration of Property of Edward YOUNG, and through Priscilla's siblings' death certificates. Edward YOUNG's name also appears on the Administration of Estate of Priscilla's sibling, William OLIVER.

There are several possibilities for the Progenitor of our Olivers, but my sleuthing has uncovered no connection, by proof, thus far:

David Oliver of Pemaquid (Maine), Fisherman, married Grace PARKER. Children:

1. Thomas, a Boston Ship-wright,
2. David. (GENEALOGICAL DICTIONARY OF MAINE AND NEW HAMPSHIRE, P.518 by Noyes, Libby and Davis), Thomas, of Boston, acted as an attorney for his brother, David, in the division of estate- see MAINE DEEDS.

Thomas OLIVER married 11 Nov 1696, in Scituate, Bethia CLAPP. This couple had a son, David OLIVER b. 6 Jan 1698, in Scituate, Plymouth Co., MA. Bethia, born in 1675, is supposed to be the daughter of Samuel and Hannah (GILL)CLAP/CLAPP. However, Samuel's Will mentioned no daughter, Bethia, and no grandson, David OLIVER.

If Mercy GRIFFIN's mother was the Mary GRIFFIN who married Jonathan Rowse DECOSTER, in the New South Church, on 30 April 1755, than it was certainly not a co-incidence that John LUCAS of Boston was guardian of Rebecca INGRAHAM, (Rebecca was the sister of Francis INGRAHAM, Sr.), and that LUCAS was also guardian of Fanny(Frances), Jonathan and Temple DECOSTER.

It should be remembered that Francis and Priscilla Gray (Oliver) INGRAHAM, Jr. named a son, Henry Lawton INGRAHAM. He was named for Henry LAUGHTON/LAWTON. Henry LAUGHTON/LAWGTON married as his second wife, Mrs. Dorcas (Marshall) POLLARD. The son of Henry Laughton,.Sr. and his first wife, Susannah (Salisbury), was:

Henry LAUGHTON, JR.-married 1739, Mary GRIFFIN sister of James GRIFFIN, of Boston, who had real estate holdings and business dealings with LAUGHTON, Jr. GRIFFIN owned the Wharf, which was the site of The Boston Tea Party. Laughton rented the Wharf, and aided the British ,by providing iron from his Ironworks and mine in Bellingham, MA. Laughton, Jr. and wife, Mary fled to Halifax, NS., and died in London, ENGLAND.

Dorcas POLLARD, The daughter of William and Dorcas (Marshall) POLLARD, married Capt. Francis INGRAHAM.

It seems logical that Mercy GRIFFIN should have been connected by blood, somehow, even if distantly, to James and Mary GRIFFIN, but James only mentioned, a sister Mary, in his Will. Also, there would be a generation gap, since Henry Laughton, Jr. was born ca. 1712, Dorcas Pollard was bpt. 1720, and Mercy GRIFFIN should have been born ca. 1752-5. It should be noted that a "Mrs. GRIFFIN and a Mrs. GRAY" fled, as loyalists, to Halifax, from Boston.

One should not take lightly the fact that there is a probable connection between Priscilla Gray OLIVER and Priscilla Gray HOPKINS, daughter of Elkannah and Lydia(Gray) HOPKINS.

A Marcy GRIFFON was born in Middleborough, Plymouth Co., Aug. 1743, to Jesse GRIFFIN. He was born 7 Jan 1710/11 in Rochester, listed with the surname "GRIFFETH". Marcy's mother, Elisabeth (Bent) died 11 Aug 1743, Middleborough, in her 37th yr., shortly after giving birth to Marcy. Marcy's bpt. record is given as Mercy GRIFFETH, 4 Aug 1743, in Plympton, MA. Jesse's name is given as "John" in THE BENT FAMILY. A Jesse and a William GRIFFITH eventually obtained passports to the South, but nothing more if known about this Marcy or Mercy GRIFFON/GRIFFETH, who was probably about nine years younger than Stephen OLIVER.

There is an obit. 5 Oct 1805, in THE COLUMBIAN CENTINEL "Mrs OLIVER died in Charleston, SC".Oct 1805. Perhaps, someone could place Jesse GRIFFIN/GRIFFETH in this area.

This book was produced using PAF. and PAFBOOK-Book Generation Program, which are marketed by two separate companies. PAFBOOK was written for WORDPERFECT. I used MICROSOFT WORD. After generating the book, I noted that when Jr. son of Sr. was supposed to appear, or III, son or II, the program erred, and duplicated Jr., and an error also occurred with III. Attempts have been made to correct any errors that were computer generated. Please accept my apology, if any additional errors are found. Notification of those errors would be greatly appreciated.

THE BOOK GENERATION PROGRAM USES THE HENRY NUMBER SYSTEM TO NUMBER INDIVIDUALS. THE INDIVIDUAL WHO WROTE THE PROGRAM ADDED SEVERAL THINGS TO IT FOR EASIER TRACKING. The numbering system consists of assigning the original ancestor the number"1". Each succeeding generation then takes the father's number and adds a digit from "1" up to the order that the children are stored in the database. Thus if the ancestor is John smith and he is numbered "1" then his second child would be numbered "12". then "12"'s third child would be "123". A study of this system will reveal many uses of numbers. The number of digits in a number indicates the individual's generation. Knowing the numbers assigned to any two or more persons, their relationship at once becomes apparent.

The things that the programmer added to the system help with the ease of figuring the number of generations for long numbers. It is easier to read "132-345-234" then it is to read "132345234". For this reason, after every third generation, he added a "-" to separate the number and make it easier to read. Thus, the fourth generation number would look as follows "123-4". The second thing that he added is for multiple marriages. This way by just looking at a number, you can tell what marriage a person is from. Also for each marriage of an individual, he restarted at "1" for the first child of that marriage. Thus, for the first marriage of individual "12", his first child would be "121". His first child of his second marriage would be "1(2)1". The "1(2)1" would read as the first child of the second marriage of the second child of that ancestor. He allowed for up to 20 marriages, five of which are listed below:

The symbols are as follows.

Marriage Number	Symbol
2nd	( )
3rd	[ ]
4th	{ }
5th	< >

Also, after the 9th child, he started to use letters so as to use only 1 digit for each generation. Thus, the tenth child of the ancestor would be "1A" and the eleventh child would be "1B" and so on. The 36th child for a marriage would thus start small letters if they should ever be needed. Thus the 36th child of the ancestor would be "1a". Each marriage is allowed up to 61 children.

The index uses the number that is given to an individual and not the page number of the book. Also added to the index is a code to tell if someone was a Spouse, Father, Mother, Spouse's Father or Spouse's Mother. They are as follows:

=H2	would be the 2nd Husband.
=W3	would be the 3rd Wife.
=F	would be the Father.
=M	would be the Mother.
=H2F	would be the 2nd Husband's Father.
=W3M	would be the 3rd Wife's Mother.

The only time that the =F or =M should show up is when the first person of the book has parents. Otherwise, the parents would use the Henry Number assigned to them.

THE OLD SOUTH CHURCH
ORTHODOX CONGREGATIONAL
WASHINGTON ST., CORNER OF MILK ST.

THE OLD SOUTH CHURCH, OLDEST OF THE ORTHODOX CONGREGATIONAL CHURCHES IN BOSTON, WAS ORGANIZED 16 MAY 1669. IN 1815, ALL OF THE ORIGINAL CONGREGATIONAL CHURCHES OF BOSTON HAD LEFT THE FAITH OF THE FATHERS. DURING THE REV., MR. HUNTINGTON'S MINISTRY, THE "AMERICAN EDUCATION SOCIETY", AND THE "SOCIETY FOR THE RELIGIOUS AND MORAL IMPROVEMENT OF THE POOR", WERE ESTABLISHED PRIMARILY BY HIS INFLUENCE. PRIOR TO 1760, THIS CHURCH MADE APPROPRIATIONS FOR THE DISTRIBUTION OF BIBLES TO HELP SUSTAIN WEAK CHURCHES, AND TO EDUCATE YOUNG MEN FOR MINISTRY. THE OLD SOUTH CHURCH WAS A BIBLE,.MISSIONARY, AND EDUCATION SOCIETY LONG BEFORE THESE MODERN ORGANIZATIONS EXISTED.

THE FIRST BUILDING OF THIS SOCIETY WAS WOODEN-CONSTRUCTED OF CEDAR. IT WAS TORN DOWN IN 1729, AND RELIGIOUS SERVICES WERE ATTENDED AT THE PRESENT BUILDING-THE FIRST SERVICES HELD 26 APR 1730. THE BUILDING IS EIGHTY-EIGHT BY SIXTY-ONE FEET. IT CONTAINS EVIDENCE OF HAVING BEEN BUILT IN THE EARLY 1700'S. IT HAS A SOUNDING BOARD, AND TWO TIERS OF GALLERIES. IT HAS NUMEROUS HISTORY ASSOCIATED WITH TIMES OF THE REVOLUTIONARY WAR.

IN THE PRESENCE OF ARMED SOLDIERS, AND IN DEFIANCE OF THEIR THREATS OF AUTHORITY, WARREN DELIVERED, IN THIS CHURCH, HIS FEARLESS ORATION, ON THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE MASSACRE OF THE 5TH OF MARCH 1770. THE MEETINGS OF THE OPPRESSED FEEEMAN WERE CONTINUOUSLY HELD HERE. THOSE MEETINGS CALLED FORTH THOSE VOICES OF PATRIOTIC ELOQUENCE WHICH MOVED THE ENTIRE COUNTRY, AND SHOOK THE BRITISH THRONE. DURING THE SIEGE OF BOSTON, THE BRITISH CAVALRY HERE EXCERCISED, AND A GROG-SHOP WAS LOCATED IN THE FIRST GALLERY. IT WAS A DISSENTING MEETING-HOUSE. PRIOR TO MAN OF GOD, GEORGE WHITEFIELD.

THE NEW SOUTH CHURCH, OR CHURCH GREEN

THE OWNERS OF THIS CHURCH MET FIRST, ON 14 JULY 1715, AT A TAVERN KNOWN AS "THE BULL". THAT YEAR, ON 20 SEPT, THE PROPRIETORS PETITIONED BOSTON FOR A PARCEL OF LAND KNOWN AS "CHURCH GREEN", FOR THE PURPOSE OF ERECTING A NEW CHURCH ON THIS SITE. THE BUILDING WAS DEDICATED ON 8 JAN 1717, AND THE CHURCH COVENANT WAS SIGNED 15 APRIL. A NEW EDIFICE WAS DEDICATED ON 29 DEC 1814. THIS WAS STANDING IN 1861. IT WAS LOCATED ON A LOVELY SITE. IT WAS BUILT OF WHITE, HAMMERED GRANITE. ITS GRACEFUL STEEPLE WAS 190 FEET HIGH, AND WAS ONE OF THE PRETTIEST STRUCTURES IN THE CITY OF BOSTON.

THE NEW SOUTH CHURCH WAS LOCATED ON SUMMER STREET, CORNER OF BEDFORD STREETS.

"Miss" at time of marriage. Mercy received full communion, and was bapt. in New S. Church 17 July 1774, by Rev. Joseph Howe. She is most probably related to James GRIFFIN of Boston, owner of Griffin Wharf-site of the Boston Tea Party, and pos. to Mary Griffin who mar. in the New S. Church,Jonathan Rowse Decoster. James'sister, Mary Griffin married Henry LAUGHTON/LAWTON-who was connected by his father's 2nd marriage to the INGRAHAMS. Mercy is most probably connected by blood to either Sea Capt. Elkannah HOPKINS or his wife, Lydia GRAY, of Harwich (Brewster), Barnstable Co. MA, who had a dau. Priscilla Gray HOPKINS. Being a Sea Captain, Elkannah HOPKINS would have frequented the port of Boston. Elkannah and wife, Lydia, went before the church in Brewster because of the charge of fornication. There is little doubt that Mercy named her dau. Priscilla Gray OLIVER, after Priscilla Gray HOPKINS. A sibling of Priscilla Gray HOPKINS was Meriam HOPKINS, who married Samuel STEBBINS, in Boston. Their son, Chillingsworth Foster STEBBINS and his family resided next to Priscilla Gray (Oliver) Ingraham BRADFORD in 1850 Boston, Ward One. Sarah SOUTHER, the Grandaughter of Priscilla Gray (Oliver) Ingraham BRADFORD, resided in STEBBINS' Household!

Stebbins' mother was Meriam(Hopkins)dau of Elkannah and Lydia (Gray)Hopkins, who had a sister, Priscilla Gray HOPKINS. Francis INGRAHAM might have been a mariner in the War of 1812-no proof. He seems to have disappeared. All Francis Ingrahams in Boston have been accounted for. A Francis Ingraham died of diarrhea in the Almshouse in Boston-Jan of 1824-bur. Jan. 10, 1824, in The South Burial Ground, Boston, at age 46 yrs., of Diarrhea. No. 8108 D, Vol. 1800-1848-REGISTRY DIV. CITY OF BOSTON-Certified copy of death. This Francis fits exactly to the "missing" Francis Ingraham, Jr., being born ca. 1777. However, THE MASS. ADJUTANT GENERAL HAS NO MILITARY RECORD FOR HIM, IN THAT WAR. Is it possible that he was detained on a ship, or in a Prison, during the War? It is ironic, but David OLIVER, the half-brother of Stephen, also disappeared from the Boston area at this time-per BOSTON DIRECTORY. Perhaps, Priscilla thought him dead, and remarried. No divorce record has been found, and she was listed as"widow" in the BOSTON DIRECTORY. Francis and Priscilla Gray (Oliver) INGRAHAM, Jr. had the following children:

However, the WILLIAM EMERY NICKERSON PAPERS at NEHGS also list her date of death as March 2, even though the death certificate states 30 March. Her birth date was obtained from the NICKERSON papers. My computer program computed her month of birth as April, when subtracting age at death from her death date. 15 Jun 1880, P. 12, Barnstable, shows Mercy keeping house, with $600 in real estate. Her daughter, Sabra, aged 23yrs. no occupation, resided with Mercy. Sabra as listed as marrying in March of that year. He was a seaman in 1850, aged 49 yrs. Sabria/Sabra A. Oliver, daughter of William and Sabrai/Sabria Sabry/Sabra (NICKERSON) Oliver, born Boston, Suffolk Co., MA, 20 Jul. 1814, died prob.Brookline, Norfolk Co., MA, 15 Jul. 1889; married Boston, Suffolk Co.,MA, (Belfast, ME), 28 Sep. 1836, Isaac Cole BROWN, born Belfast, Waldo Co., ME, 1814, died Belfast, Waldo Co., ME, Abt 1840; married 2nd, Prob. Boston, Suffolk Co., MA, Abt 1840, George Washington TORREY, son of William and Anna (Davenport) TORREY, born Mendon, Worcester Co., MA, 26 Oct. 1806, died Brookline, Norfolk Co., MA, 3 Oct. 1885. BOSTON MAR. INDEX BOOK 1, P.92. Her mother's Barnstable Co. Probate Record indicates that Sabria's last name is Torrey, and that her residence is Brookline, on 14 Feb 1874. She was definitely an OLIVER, per the Boston Mar. Index, but according to the 1850 census, Boston, Ward 5, P.307R, she was 30 yrs. old, placing her birth as 1820. It must be in error, since her father died in 1816, placing her birth no later than 1817. I have changed Sabra's birth to that of the I.G.I. (abstract below), since it seems to be more accurate: There is an incorrect entry on the I.G.I.: Sabra BROWN, dau. of William Oliver BROWN/Sabra NICKERSON, b. 20 Jul 1814(of Abington)-Temple Work done at the Logan Temple 5 Jul 1932. This was submitted in error, probably due to the fact that Sabra married Isaac BROWN, and then Geo. W. TORREY. The submitter must not have been aware of Sabra's first marriage. The source is film # 0177914. Additional Source: the WILLIAM EMERY NICKERSON PAPERS at NEHGS. Isaac might have been christened 14 Aug 1814, Hamilton, Essex Co., MA. If he was, his mother was Lucy Brown. His father was not listed on the IGI. According to the IGI, marriage extraction, the marriage occurred in Belfast, ME. It is also recorded in Boston Mar. Index. He was a Grocer, no real estate, in Ward 5, Boston, 2 Oct 1850. He is listed in the WILLIAM EMERY NICKERSON PAPERS at NEHGS, as George William TORREY. The Morman Church has an I.G.I. submission giving his name as George Washington TORREY, and the same middle name was submitted for George, Jr. According to the 1850 census, his birth year was 1810. Isaac Cole and Sabria/Sabra A. (Oliver) BROWN had the following child:

Cause of death: consumption. There are two different entries at The LDS Family History Center: born ca. 1812, and born 25 Apr 1806, in Plympton, MA. I assume from the age at death, and her tombstone, that the date I am using is more in line, especially compared to her husband's birth date. I believe, after consulting the Norfolk Co. Probate Index, that Mary E. MaDan and Thos. MaDan were actually OLIVERS, born to Thomas J. and Ellen M.(Whiting)Oliver. Lot J. MaDan married her as both of their second marriages, 30 Mar. 1863. The kids are listed as MaDans with both Lot and Ellen, in the 1870 census.In 1867, according to the Probate Index. a guardian was appointed to the children. There is a descrepancy in his date of birth: Canton Church Rec. gives his christening date as 28 May 1829, but his tombstone says May 10, 1833. There is a possibility that he had a sibling by the same name who was born in 1829, and died bef. he was born, but this is doubtful, because the 1870

census gives his age as being born in 1829. However, his brother, Abraham/Abram was born in 1833. Accord. to the Canton Church Rec. In the 1870 census, the surname is MADDAN or MUDDAN. Lot mar. 2)Ellen M. (Whiting) Oliver, wid. of Thos. J. Oliver. She is bur. with her 1st husband. Mar. rec. Jan.1851, gives Lot's age as 21, bootmaker. Mar. by Rev. Isaac Smith of E. Stoughton. No. 8886-BRADFORD GENEALOGY MANUSCRIPT by Horace Standish Bradford. COLOMBIAN CENTINEL MAR. 1784-1840; WELCOME ENGLISHMEN-Hist. of the Bradford Family. RESIDENCE: 24 Blossom St., Chelsea, MA. Emeline P.(Bradford) Williams was in England May 6, 1867-source: Her mother's probate record. According to a letter from Frank H. WILLIAMS, addressed to Mr. Geo. F. Ingraham, of Nacogdoches, TX dated 25 Dec. 1913,Box 329, Nashua, NH, he and his parents resided at 24 Blossom St. Both of his parents were dead, along with Aunt Mary Newcomb and Uncle Jimmie, who had passed away, along with George Bradford. Frank went on to wish George F. Ingraham a "Happy New Year". A photocopy of the above letter and envelope with postal date mark, is in the possession of Diana (Eaton) Butcher- furnished to her by Mary Martha Hackney, June 1985, along with a copy of the following summarized instrument: THE STATE OF TEXAS COUNTY OF NACOGDOCHES: Know all men by these presents that I George F. Ingraham of said State and County, in consideration of $1,000.00 paid by F. HOYA, also of above state and county, in cash, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, have bargained, sold, released and conveyed and by these presents do grant...unto the said F. H. HOYA, the following property to wit: All the right, title interest and claim I have in and to a certain HOUSE AND LOT CONVEYED TO ME BY JOSEPHUS F. WILLIAMS AND EMELINE P. WILLIAMS by deed dated March 12, A.D. 1873, the title, property, thereto being delivered herewith to said HOYA. All the land or interest therein that I now own on the James Walling survey in Nacogdoches County Texas estimated at one hundred and fifty acres of land viz Ninety acres of which said Hoya now holds a deed in Trust. To have and to hold unto the said Hoya, his heirs and assigns forever. This instrument being executed to secure the Hoya for one thousand dollars advanced to me for the purpose of running and carrying on an Exchange Business at Nacodoches, Texas, and if I shall pay back to said Hoya or cause the said to be done, the said one thousand dollars within a reasonable time after demanded, then this instrument to be null and void otherwise to remain in full force and effect. Witness my hand this January 3, A.D. 1881. In the presence of Jesse W. Lloyd, Geo. F. Ingraham, Jno. H. Cox. In a letter to Diana, dated 31 May 1985,b from Mary Martha Hackney, she states that Hoya was Von

Hoya, and came from Germany to Nacodoches. Von was supposed to indicate nobility in Germany. They had nothing to do with the east or anything except that they had money to lend. Mary Martha said her grandfather, Geo. F. Ingraham, made a trip to Boston area to visit his relatives. She had no idea when. No one ever mentioned it. Her father was next to youngest child. He had a younger sister who died at a yr. old. Her father was born Apr 8, 1881. Her father never mentioned the trip. Mary Martha said everyone in the South was so poor after the Civil War that she can't believe that Geo. F. made the trip at the time of the date of deed-"but who knows. He farmed and then taught school, and then became a lawyer and a judge. He died Apr 27, 1920. His first wife, Mary Martha's grandmother died in 1902. he married again in 1904. Maybe he made the trip between 1902 and 1904." Mary Martha had no papers to state when he paid off the note to Hoya and regained title to the Chelsea, MA property. (Diana wrote to the Chelsea Tax Assessor-but they had no listing for property at 24 Blossom St.) The 1880 census, 24 Blossom St., Chelsea, shows Emmeline P. Williams as a carpetmaker. Her middle initials were obtained from the 1850 census, Boston, MA, Ward One. Res. 24 Blossom St., 5 Jun 1880 (census). He was a mariner, maimed, and crippled or bedridden. For many years, Esther's folks in Limerick had little contact with the Avon family. By the time that they did visit Avon, many of them had died. My uncle, Bill OLIVER, is 84 yrs. old and has additional medical problems that he did not have the last time I saw him." (Esther had just returned from a trip to Florida, to visit her uncle.) "My aunt, who is also 84 yrs. old, Any benefit has reversed. She is very frail. They still manage, so far, to live independently. They are no longer active in the SAR or DAR." (Esther also wrote in this letter to Diana(Eaton)Butcher, dated 7 Dec 1993) "My Uncle Bill has no information on "Old Relatives", other than what I have sent to him. Also, there is a question about "Clara". I was always told that there were 9 children in the family. However, my uncle could provide no details, so I am wondering if my grandmother may have had a miscarriage-perhaps there was no record." Copy of Mar. Cert.-OLIVER-CRUMP: from E. Mercer. Smith, Jr., sent info. published in THE FORT WORTH PRESS, on July 25, 1934, paying tribute to Julius Grey Smith(called "Jule")..calling him "one of the principal factors in the city's rapid rise as a grain center & railroad development of West Texas". In 1905, he settled in Fort Worth, and became a partner & established the Smith Bros. Grain Co. In 1907, he left the Smith Co. to organize and found the Fort Worth Elevator and Warehouse Co. and the Smith-Ingraham Grain Co. in 1928. He was President of the Fort Worth Cotton and Grain exchange for one year. His final tribute called him "a self-made man." Julius Grey Smith was one of the investors who financed the building of the Texas Hotel (which became the Sheraton-Fort Worth), among his many accomplishments. Judge Ingraham wrote a letter to Jule Smith on the evils of gambling. Jule Smith paid no attention to it and went right on playing the grain market until he was a very wealthy man in the 1920's. His birth cert. was also obtained from the City Clerk of Chelsea, MA. Arthur I. Eaton's age at death of 43 yrs. is incorrect. he was 44 y, 1 m, 14 das. old. According to Arthur B. Eaton, His father, Richard I. Eaton, believing that his father Arthur I. Eaton died at age 43, had said numerously that he might not live past that age. Richard, as the only man in the family of Mother, Grandmother, and sister, must have felt a great deal of responsibility, at the age of 13, when he lost his father; and actually he was a great deal younger when his father was stricken and hospitalized with the paralysis. According to son, Richard's b. record, Arthur was a bookkeeper in 1890. Arthur is buried under the step of the Eaton Monument, Section B, Row 1 in the Old Burial Ground of Reading, now Wakefield, MA. Additions and Corrections to THE OLIVER FAMILY
P. 91 Arthur Bradford EATON-No. 111-233-212

In 1942, Art was sixteen years old, and a Junior in High School. Art had to boost himself up the stairs backwards, step-by-step in a seated position to use the bathroom facilities, and to go to bed. His doctor was treating his illness as a Rheumatic condition, with a sun lamp and vitamins. Art responded to treatment.

Art took the Navy V12 test in High School and passed it. However, he failed the physical. Passing the tests would have resulted in a college education, with a Lieutenant Junior Grade Commission. The draft physical resulted in a 4F Classification. Physician, Dr. Neustadt, who was affiliated with Mass. General Hospital, did draft physicals in South Boston. He diagnoised Art's condition as Accute Infectious Polyneuritis-inflamation of many of the nerve endings. Art finally asked for a referral to Mass. General Hospital as an out-patient, where Dr. Neustadt became his Physician.

Out of twenty-three diagnoised with this disease, thirteen died because it got into their chest muscles and paralyzed them. Art was among the lucky ten survivors.
